Sea and Culture City

Islands and sawtooth coastlines of a mild climate,

Make the most of a rare opportunity to fully enjoy the complete charm of pearls

Mikimoto Pearl Island

Mikimoto Pearl Island is the place where, for the first time in the world, pearls were successfully cultured by Kokichi Mikimoto. Now it is a theme park where you see all kinds of pearls and find out everything you want to know about them. At Kokichi Mikimoto Memorial Hall, you can learn about the life of Kokichi Mikimoto. The Pearl Museum shows how pearls are cultured and also exhibits craft items and fabulous works incorporating pearls. At Pearl Plaza you will be amazed at the form and color of the Mikimoto pearl products you can buy. A third of the island is covered with a flourishing natural forest of pines and Japanese chinquapins, some of which are more than over 200 years old. By all means, go for a pleasant walk and let your mind absorb your new knowledge of pearls.

Get close to dolphins

Toba Bay excursion and dolphin island

Offshore in Toba Bay, Dolphin Island is a place to get close to creatures of the sea. Be amazed by the dynamic dolphin athletics and even get close enough to even pet the performers. The sea lion show is also very popular. From the lookout point in the middle of the island, you can enjoy great views across Toba Bay and beyond to Ise Bay.
